

Mr. Britt Stewart

November 27, 1984 - August 14, 2015

HINESVILLE - Mr. Britt Stewart age 30, entered eternal rest on Friday, August 14, 2015. He was born in Savannah, Georgia on November 27, 1984. As a 2003 honor graduate of Liberty County High School he participated in the Marching Band and helped compose music. He continued his formal education at Mercer University where he studied Music Composition. Britt was an avid lover of music and played several instruments including the piano, saxophone, baritone and many others. With a refined palette he was a connoisseur of fine dining & wines. He also had a love for travel which led him on many adventures with family & friends to various cities in the United States. He was impeccably stylish, creative and with a fashion sense always ahead of the season. He lived in Savannah, GA for several years before leaving for Oakland, CA to pursue a career in the Fine Arts.

He is preceded in death by his father, Willie Barret, Jr.

He is survived by his loving mother Diane Stewart of Hinesville, GA; four siblings, Chevas Stewart, Kyaun Stewart, Megan Stewart and Brice Stewart, all of Hinesville, GA; Five aunts, Patricia Mitchell (James) of Savannah, GA, Jeanette Hodnett (William) of Hinesville, GA, Sheila Stewart (Gary), Bernadette Stewart, and Georgia Mae Stewart, all of Atlanta, GA., Two uncles Anthony Stewart of Brunswick, GA and Michael Stewart of Riceboro, GA; One grandaunt Ruth Richardson of Riceboro, GA; one niece, Vanessa D. Stewart and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Cemetery

First A.B. Church
Cemetery
1709 Barrington Ferry Rd
Riceboro, GA, 31323

Events

AUG	Service	03:00PM
22	First African Baptist Church 1709 Barrington Ferry Road, Riceboro, GA, US, 31323

Comments

---

“ Though I never knew Britt he sounds like a special person and my heart goes out to your loss. When lively, young, talented individuals are gone, it makes us wonder why. May you find the answers and gain comfort through God's word. - John 11:11-15, 25

Matt Brooks - August 22, 2015 at 06:36 AM

---

“ Britt was one of my first friends when I moved to Savannah. I knew from the moment we met he had a magic about him. He was a connector of souls. There's only a handful of people in my life that have had such a sparkle about them, that you in turn forever shine because of them. He was my Gypsy soul-brother, my eternal dance partner, confidant, and fashion go to. Words can't describe how genuinely beautiful his heart and soul was/still is. My dear Britt Britt, I'll carry you in my heart always. I'll never stop missing you....heaven gained the most fashionable angel ever. May god hold you in the palm of his hand....

Candi Whitmore - August 20, 2015 at 08:12 PM

---

“ One of the nicest things someone has done for me, was from Brit. Christmas 2006, only a few days before I was being discharged from the Army and heading back to Oregon. Brit heard that I would be spending Christmas Day alone, with no family or friends. Being the caring sweet man that he was, he made sure to invite me over to his house (when he lived with John) to have dinner and a few holiday drinks, just the two of us. That gesture meant so much to me, I wasn't able to thank him enough. May you Rest In Piece my Friend. The good really do die young.

Kyle Hansen - August 20, 2015 at 09:52 AM

---

“ My dear baby boy Britt,

I can't believe I am writing this, it is so bizarre. You were so full of life, last time I saw you it was a perfect day, we eat lunch, we had coffee, we had dinner and we went to see a funny movie. Even though we lived very far away, every time we met up felt as if time stood still. I remember the first time I went back home after moving, we sat in your living room and we watched Oprah, and I didn't even have to say anything, we would communicate our feelings without words, you knew why I laughed when I laughed and you knew what I was thinking without me even saying a word. I have so many fond memories of you, many movies we watched together, many choreographies we learned, food we ate, friends we loved, people we fancied... And it is so weird that now it's all a memory, as if I woke up and all of this was just a beautiful dream that I shall close my eyes hard and try to go back to, failing miserably. You were such a beautiful boy, the world is at loss without you. Like Winnie The Pooh said "If there ever comes a day when we can't be together, keep me in your heart, I'll stay there forever" (I know you would dig that reference)

Love you my petit prince, forever in my heart.

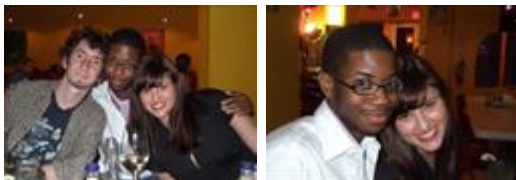

Manuela Viseras - August 19, 2015 at 01:55 PM

---

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

Manuela Viseras - August 19, 2015 at 01:42 PM

---

“ Your Friends at Cellular Sales purchased the Beautiful in Blue for the family of Mr. Britt Stewart.

Your Friends at Cellular Sales - August 18, 2015 at 12:58 PM

---

“ May God Bless you and Keep you in this hour of need. My prayers are with you and your family at this time.

Claire Robinson - August 18, 2015 at 12:26 PM

---

“ I worked with Britt and found him to be the most unique and kind person I have known. He was always upbeat even though he went through tough times. Britt would make me laugh and that's the memories I like to keep. To his mother and family please remember how talented he was. A true artist never dies. They live on in our hearts forever.

Sincerely
Paschal Miller

Paschal Miller - August 18, 2015 at 11:07 AM

“ Though I never knew Britt he sounds like a special person and my heart goes out to your loss. When lively, young, talented individuals are gone, it makes us wonder why. May you find the answers and gain comfort through God's word. - John 11:11-15, 25

Matt Brooks - August 22, 2015 at 06:35 AM