“ With Me Always

*My husband, my confidant, my best friend,
I promise to love you until the very end.
You will always be apart of me and I will forever feel your strength.*

*You maybe out of my sight, but you are Forever in my heart.
Not even death could keep us apart.*

*You are with me always, as I continue my life
and you will continue to watch over me, your loving wife.
You are gone from here, but I will never forget
And if I live right, I will see you again.
So I won't complain.*

*I was so blessed to have you in my life.
Job well done Alfred, I can only imagine when I see you on the other side.
Always with me, always your loving wife.

“ I ONLY WANTED YOU

*They say memories are golden well maybe that is true.
I never wanted memories,pops
I only wanted you.*

*A million times I needed you,
a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you
you never would have died.*

*Despite it all,dadI loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place
no one could ever fill.*

*If tears could build a stairway
and heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven
and bring you back again.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.....
I love you ole man.....and I miss you dearly....

“ It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. The Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, not in an unknown heaven but right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again. Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. I hope these promises provide you with a measure of comfort.

“ Remember all the good times we had through life. Play together as children's and most of all all the family reunions we plan and the family spend together Alfred were the one in the family through God that kept these family reunions going sometimes spending money out of own pocket came to most all the events we had in the family first one wants to know how he could help Rip cousin Alfred L.Gordon. soul going to soon take your rest now. Miss you twin.

Ronnie Savage - March 01, 2015 at 04:09 PM

I'm gonna really miss Alfred, it was always fun to be in his presence. He loved his family. We couldn't wait until he would come to Florida, because we knew he wanted some fish. We're going to miss Alfred.
