“ Eric,
I am so very sorry for your loss. May God's all-encompassing grace and mercy permeate your very being, as well as that of everyone whose life was touched by your Mom, May His peace soothe your wounded hearts and may your memories be only of every precious, joyful moment of her life! Sending up prayers for all of you!

“ Aunt Kate words can't express how much you Will be missed by family and friends.I remember how much fun Melvin and I had when we visited Smithville and spent time with you an uncle Clifford in Savannah. To my cousins having loss my Dad (Wali) not so long ago I can say the loss gets easier to bare and memories help with that. I pray that the Lord continues to keep you in his care and ease your sorrow. Please know that your family in Detroit,New York and Maryland send our love your way in your time of sorrow.
