“ Good afternoon Sophia, I just heard about CJ today; I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I can remember seeing him around the hotel clinging so tightly to you as you try to complete your work. This is truly hard Sophie, but I do know that God will give you all the strength, peace and comfort that you will need to go through this your time of sorrow. Please allow CJ's passing to not only draw you closer to others but closer to God. I believe within my heart that he is at rest and that you will see him again.

*May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory.

“ Many prayers for precious Corey and his family. Corey was a delightful, well mannered and genuine young man. I got to know Corey on his many visits to see his beloved Mrs. Baxter At OCS. Corey always made me smile with his quick wit and humor. He was a beautiful young man who will be missed by many. God Bless.

“ Dear family of Corey,
No, I did not know your precious loved one but had to express my sincere condolences. I have seen what the lost of a child does to the hearts of those who love them so much no matter that child's age. My husband has lost 2 sons. Please know you will be in our prayers especially during the days to come as you go about the days to come without him here. May the comfort of the one above be with you.
