“ I remember this picture made me sooo mad but they were so happy that day... But that's when I knew that Dyquan loved my daughter and that one day he would become my son in law...because no matter what I said not to do they bucked until I gave in. Dyquan I miss you already and just know you're always going to hold that special place in my heart that's reserved for my son in law..I would have been proud..I love you...
