

Mr. James Edward Bell

July 31, 1923 - December 4, 2012

James Edward Bell, 80 departed this life on Tuesday, December 4, 2012 at Mary Washington Hospital in Fredericksburg, Virginia. He was a native of Baltimore, Maryland and the eldest of seven children.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Gladys Brown Bell, a daughter, Amanda Bell McClain and son, James Bell, Jr.

He was a veteran of the United States Army serving in World War II Era. James was highly decorated with several Medals of Honor and the Purple Heart of Valor. He retired at the age of 65 from Wallabout Meat Packing Company in Brooklyn, NY as a professional Meat Cutter.

He took great pleasure in watching his children play with cousins, and watching everyone enjoy the wonderful cooking he did everywhere he went. The man could cook!!! Anything!!!

In 1987 James and his wife, Gladys moved to Bluffton, SC., where he attended the Bluffton congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

He leaves to cherish his memories: Daughters; Yvonne (Arnold) Sledge, Odessa (Joe) Boone, all of New York; and Gladys Assada Bell who he raised as his own, of Virginia; Sons; Michael Bell, of Virginia, and Jerome (Angela)

Bell, of New Jersey. A Daughter-in-Law; Beverly Hopkins Bell, of New Jersey.

A host of Grand, Great Grands, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
