“ To the Carthon family, I offer my deepest sympathies and prayers. It has taken me some time to speak about Johnathan’s transition, I am still processing it. My name is Shaneen Murray, Johnathan hired me as his Marketing Coordinator at Universal Beauty Products. I worked closely with him on the development of Jamaican Mango & Lime’s Braids Your Way product line. I learned a TON from him he really had a brilliant mind; he was a real concept engineer! Johnathan was a larger than life, gentle giant with a flair for fashion. He was an excellent baker too and his grilled burgers (his aunt’s million dollar recipe) were the best, I was there for the Juneteenth bbq on the company lawn LOL IYKYK! After UBP, JCC and I remained friends and spoke often. He baked a couple of cakes for my mom and even hung out with us last summer at her high school class reunion picnic, he had become extended family. JCC was very supportive of me whether it was tweaking my resume or purchasing my book, he wanted me to excel and that was evident from the day I interviewed with him. Johnathan always had a master plan... and God did too which he led our guy back home to his roots and family in GA. I feel beyond blessed to have been in the midst of his Iconic Greatness! Blessings to all who know and love Mr. Johnathan Carthon. 💙

It was hard to hear the news, but only God knows why he was ready for another great soul in his kingdom. I worked as Johnathan's last assistant and boy was he the life of the party. It was never a dull moment and he always lit up the room with his presence. Our journey together will never be forgotten and one I will always treasure. He was one of a kind. My condolences to your family during this difficult time. Rest easy my friend, rest easy till we meet again.

“ Seeing, speaking to, and praying over my A.E. Beach High Class of 1994 Class President on July 20th was a blessing. You made me smile. All I saw was the chief cheerleader for life that you had always been. I felt your big, bright energy.

John, you served your people well. You showed us how to live big and love wide. Rest well, my friend. Love you. 💙💛
