“ I offer my sincere condolences to the Green family, may God comfort you all in this time of pain.
I bid you farewell Karen (K K), and I read somewhere, to be absent in the body, you must be in the presence of the Lord.

“ When I was in 10th grade, I lived in my Grand-Aunt Frances's house on Orchard Street. KK was my little cousin with whom I shared our little inside jokes. I saw her over the years grow up into a young lady. I remember when she got her first kind of grown up heels for church. I remember her singing a solo in our family church, First Union Baptist when she was a young teenager. As happens, we become young adults and go our separate ways. But you always love your family. My cousin always had a beautiful smile and a caring personality. I can't believe I won't see her again. She is loved, will be missed and never forgotten.

Please accept my heart felt and deepest condolences to the family for your loss. May God Bless each of you during your bereavement. Do know that the family is in my thoughts & prayers. This saddens my heart to hear this news. I met Karen at SSC then but now SSU. She was a very nice, comical & pleasant person. She was truly a joy to be around! May God Heal the broken hearted, mend brokenness, set free, deliver, restore and show His Love to All of you!!!

I met her in Augusta, GA when I was 18 years old. We lived next door to each other. I loved her family Mr. and Mrs. Green were like parents to me. My then husband was in the military and they knew me as Connie Goodman. KK was probably 6 or 7 years old. She was so energetic and full of aspirations about what would happen when she grew up. I had a chance to watch her grow up and accomplish everything she said she would even as a little girl. I attended her college graduation, bringing my children from Arkansas to meet KK that I always talked so much about. KK loved most, her son. She instilled the character she had into him. Son, your mother simply adored you and beamed when she talked about how smart you are. My prayer is that you stay the character she raised you to have and know we will all see her again because she knows the Lord. Thank you my very first Goddaughter. You fought with all you might, now rest. I shall miss you. Calvin and Nikki our heartfelt sympathy. Dr. Connie Foster, N. Little Rock, Arkansas.
