

Ms. Margaret Hogan

December 17, 1943 - January 2, 2023

Richmond Hill - Ms. Margaret Hogan, 79 entered eternal rest Monday, January 2, 2023 at Saint Joseph's Hospital. She was born December 17, 1943 in Way Station, Georgia. She was the youngest of four children born to Jessie Mae Davis, daughter of the late Lula B. Smith. Margaret was affectionately known as Margaree by her family and close friends.

In her early years, she obtained her education at George Washington Carver School. As a young adult, she traveled the East Coast as a seasonal worker, where along the way, she found Christ. Her past employment included Ford Plantation and as a housekeeper at Holiday Inn, Richmond Hill for the last 25 years of her career.

Margaree leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Chester Lee (Ursula), Beatrice Osorio, Ida Polite (Willie), Ruth Jackson, Johnnie Hogan, Anthony Trice (Leticia), Marlan Hogan; her eldest sister, Catherine Morris, additional siblings, Albert Clark, Reather Mae Blige, Gertie Hunter, Bernice Bacon, Byrdel Clark, and Simon Lee; 15 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousin, and friends. A very close friend whom she considered as a daughter, Shaneeka Grant.

“ All Mothers are created with love and blessings from God, But My Mother Mrs. Margaret Hogan was Exceptionally more than your average Mother. She was pure truth, Strong as a rock, very intelligent, with wisdom and knowledge from heaven. She was a fighter and would do anything for her family, she did more than my words could express. She was nothing short of amazing. Truly sent from God himself. She raised 7 children on her own with one job. She Gave her all to be sure we learned what she knew. This woman was incredible. She will be remember for eternity, because she was a Angel sent from Heaven. ”
