“ My heart dropped when I learned of your passing. I was saddened, but quickly realize that you were now walking around heaven with no worries. She was an amazing woman who always referenced God as the head of her life. I will always remember our time after church eating out as a family. Although she never had children or grandchildren. We always referenced her as mom/granny. Granny is what my dad started to call her and that made her day. Her smile and spirit was beautiful. I love you and will miss you. Rest on!!!
