“ Aunt Martha, I miss talking with you from time to time. I can't imagine not hearing your voice now. I miss your laughter as well. I still think about if I had only talked with you one more time. But of course we all know we don't know what tomorrow will bring least of all if we will be here the next minute. I love you so much. I remember the last time we were all together at your sister's house. I miss mother Ollie, uncle Otis, aunt Mandy and Verne too. I know you must be shouting in heaven now. I will always love you! Your niece, Terelene

“ You have been in my life since 1/5/1990. I can not remember a time when I needed you and you didn't come through for my children, my mom, and I. Your doors were always opened no matter how many people were in your home. You loved and treated all of my children as if they were your biological grandchildren. I remember the day I gave birth to you son's first son (Alexandrius Outler Jr. and you all came to the hospital to see him. I remember you stood over AJ and stated yes that's my grand boy there. He is chewing his tongue just like Elliot. I remember all the long nights that you drove up and down highway 21 to drop everyone off to places we needed to go and you never complained. I remember you went to every Walmart in Savannah, Hinesville and Statesboro to search for AJ a key board and you wasn't able to find one at those stores so you went to Jesup and it was one key board left and you purchased it for AJ. I will miss you telling us about Jesus and the things that were going to happen. I can see you riding in that big yellow car with the " Jesus is coming" sign in the window. No one can say " Jesus is coming " the way you did. Because of you, " Jesus " was the first word that came out of AJ's mouth. I will miss all the trips we took to Red and White grocery store. You will be truly missed and never ever forgotten.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. She will be dearly missed. Martha was a second mother to me and I often called her mom. She and I would talk often on the phone sharing stories and laughing. When I'd come to visit with my dog, Tru, I always brought treats as she always wanted to give him treats. He loved to go visit his grandma and would get excited every time. Matthew loved my homemade Sloppy Joe that I'd make for her. She'd call it Chili. I'll never be able to make it again without thinking of Martha. She was liked by so many. She had a kind heart. I miss you already dear mom. I'll always love you and remember all our laughter and lunches out together and errands. I know you'll be watching us from heaven!❤️💋
