“ A loving light who was a work mom and friend. Mary made sure everyone around her was ok. I'll miss her check-in in on me over the years and her Facebook messages to show me she was keeping up with the young people. Thankful for the time we had and all she shared 💔

“💔 From Simone

💜 Auntie Bernadette,
there will never be enough words to express how much you meant to us. You were so much more than my uncle Roy's wife... you were family in every way that mattered. A true friend, a real auntie, and a sister to my mom. The bond y'all shared was something sacred, and the love she has for you runs so deep. My mom and I will miss you undoubtedly, wholeheartedly, endlessly.

For me... you were one of the anchors in my life. I will cherish every moment we shared — every laugh, every talk, every time you fussed at me and my cousin like we were your own. I'll never forget us sneaking in and out of your house thinking we were getting away with something, just for you to catch us and set us straight with that look only you could give. Those memories are part of who I am.

And as I got older, your wisdom meant even more. The advice you gave me about marriage, womanhood, and motherhood... I will carry that with me forever. You gave me guidance that came from love, from experience, from your heart. You poured into me in ways you didn't even realize. I am better because of you.

Thank you for loving us the way you did. Thank you for being a safe place, for being strong, funny, wise, loving, and everything in between. Thank you for showing me what it looks like to show up for your family with your whole heart.

Auntie Bernadette, we will miss you so much. My mom's heart is heavy, and so is mine — but we know your spirit is still with us, watching over us, smiling that beautiful smile.

Rest peacefully, Auntie.

We'll love you forever. 💜💜💔💔
