“ Hi Matthew, you left before us but we'll see you again ❤️
I have great memories of being your childhood friend. I kinda even enjoyed breaking up brother and sister fights with you and Jennifer... hey I was young.. it made things fun. Me, Jennifer, Stephen, Kevin and you were all like siblings. You were the baby and adored by your Momma.
Rest well with Our Savior and enjoy time with Grandma and Inu. I know she was happy to receive you. Keep us a spot, love you 💕

“ I am so very sorry to hear that you are gone! You were an unforgettable person with your huge personality and your silly sense of humor. You would make Ryan and I laugh until we were crying and I was peeing myself! Rest in heaven, Matthew!

“ I remember when I met Matthew's mother and one day we decided to skip cosmetologist classes and take the kids to the beach, at that time I thought how strong a woman she was for raising four children. I had none. But I had an eighth month old Matthew. I found out how beautiful it was to hold a baby in the water. Matthew loved the water. And played and laughed. Matthew was a funny kid growing up. I will treasure the moment in the water with Matthew the rest of my life. I pray 🙏 you rest in peace in the arms of the angels. Tell your grandma hello for me too. I love you!❤️

“ I was seven years old when my brother came into this world. I didn't want a brother because I was surrounded by boys. Out numbered! Momma brought him home and I heard him crying in his crib one night a few months after this brother was brought home. I went to him and made him a bottle and was feeding him through the bars starring at him while he stared at me. He held my finger..... I held his bottle. He was the first baby I ever stole. My little brother. How I will miss your humor and laughter. Rest in Peace my little love
