

Mrs. Mentoria German Bradley

October 8, 1940 - August 3, 2025

SAVANNAH - Mrs. Mentoria Louvenia German Bradley, 84, entered eternal rest, early Sunday Morning, August 3, 2025 at Candler Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

Mentoria German Bradley, daughter of the late Donald Jackson-German and Maggie Lou Williams-German, was born October 8, 1940, in Screven County, Georgia. She received her early education in Sylvania, Georgia, a graduate of Central High School, Class of 1958. Upon moving to Savannah as a young woman, Mentoria secured employment at Willie Brown's Cafeteria where she met the love of her life, Mr. Walter I. Bradley, Jr. They were joined in holy matrimony in 1967, and to this union, five children were born.

In 1968, Mentoria Bradley joined the United House of Prayer for All People and was baptized by Daddy McCollough. As a devout member of the church, she received the Holy Ghost and Fire which inspired her to join many auxiliaries within the church. She served faithfully on the Grace Girl Scouts and the McCollough Stewardess boards until her health declined. She enjoyed traveling to various state convocations, church events and special services with her children.

Saint Mentoria was employed for the Savannah Chatham County Public School's Nutrition Department as a cook. She later became assistant manager at Casimir Pulaski Elementary School where she retired after 33 years, retiring in 2003.

However, her greatest happiness was preparing baked treats to sell weekly at the church and for the Annual Holy Convocation at Savannah's Mother House. A few of her menu items were her homemade bread pudding, pineapple upside down cake, pound cake, chocolate layer cake, sweet potato pie, coconut pie, chicken and tuna salads.

Saint Mentoria leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband of 59 years, Mr. Walter I. Bradley, Jr.; five children: Latricia Givens (Louis, Sr.) of Savannah, GA, Cheryl Cotton (Sgt. Tommie Cotton, Retired), Savannah, GA, Deacon Lawrence K. Bradley, Sr. (Patricia), Savannah, GA, Edith Bradley Smith (Benjamin), Savannah, GA, and Edwin Bradley, Savannah, GA. She also leaves to mourn her brother: Rev. Jonah E. German (Wynona); sister: Mrs. Gladys B. Willis of Tucker, GA, and two devoted sisters-in-law: Millie German and Wynona German of Savannah, Georgia.

Dear to heart are her five grandchildren: Shimelle Carter, Aleisha West (Keller), Charlotte, NC, Danielle Johnson (Jordan), Charlotte, NC, Lawrence Bradley, Jr., Rockledge, FL, and Louis Givens, Jr. of Savannah, GA, and her six great grandchildren: Ahmad West, Kyler West, Amalie West, Lauren Bradley, KourVoisier Russell, Jr. and Symere Russell, host of nieces, nephews, cousins, church family other relatives and many friends.

Interment: 1:00 pm Monday, August 18, 2025, Georgia Veteran Memorial Cemetery, 8819 US- 301 Glennville, GA 30427

“ I apologize that I am unavailable to be with you at this time. Ma always treated me like a son. People in the HOP who weren't from Savannah thought Lawrence and I were the twins on the Sounds. I hope you all find comfort eventually, as I have in knowing that our mothers were doers of the word not hearers only. So keep your heads up, Patricia, Cheryl, Lawrence, Edwin and Edith.

Much Love - Herman, Jr.

*Peace,
My love for your Mom runs way back when we were young McCollough Maids...so fortunate to have been able to visit your home on Sunday evenings. Nancy and I used love your Mom's corn bread and fried chicken ...and her delicious chicken salad! So much TLC. I loved her then and always will. The village at the UHOP in Savannah kept us grounded and solid in the Lord. I Thank God for her inspiring us to Love one another. Love Always Esteen*

“ Rest with the Angels Auntie!! May the family find peace and sympathy knowing that she lived a great life and will be managing the Lunchroom in Heaven. She held down the fort of Pulaski school for many, many years. What a sweet soul she was. Heaven gained a true Christian this time. My only Aunt went to be with God. May my family find peace and strength at this time in the last walk of this life with her. 🙏❤️😊
