

Mrs. Patricia Moore Blocker

January 6, 1969 - August 19, 2025

SAVANNAH - Mrs. Patricia L. Moore Blocker entered eternal rest, Tuesday evening, August 19, 2025 at St. Joseph's Hospital surrounded by her loving family. She received her early education in Chatham County and graduated with the Groves High School Class of 1987. After high school, Patricia pursued higher education and earned her Registered Nursing license. Later, following her love for beauty and creativity, she returned to school for Cosmetology . She dedicated much of her career to serving others through the mental health field, working with Tideland Mental Health Center, which later became Gateway Behavioral Health Services. Patricia truly loved people, and whether through healthcare, hairstyling, or simply a kind word, she touched countless lives.

Patricia leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband, James E. Blocker of Savannah; her daughter, Teara Blocker of Hinesville, GA; her son, Robert Johnson, Jr.; two sisters, Michelle Moore and Natasha Moore; three brothers, Kenneth Oliver, Michael Moore, and Robert Moore, Jr. and her eleven precious grandchildren three through Teara and eight through Robert who were the light of her life. She also leaves behind nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and many friends who will forever love and remember her.

“ We will truly miss her warm. "HELLO, HOW ARE YOU ", and her beautiful smile. Good neighbors are hard to come by. We are happy to say she was always a good neighbor, even when she didn't feel her best, she'd never let it show.

Ecclesiastes the third chapter says we all have to go this way. I met Patty 39 years ago when I lived on Jenkins Street her mother is my only daughter God mother!! I watched as she grew up graduate from high school, have her first child got her first job at United cerebral palsy by her first house and when the forest, I was so proud of this young lady, she was such a sweet person if she could help you, she would her mother was the same way Vivian was a sweet natured person I was a homebody but something drew me to them. It's been that way since then my daughter is 39 years old. I loved Patty like she was my own. It breaks my heart that Nookie and his sister had to come this way this early. May God bless and keep the family through this time loss I was there when she met James when she had her baby with James James hold on God I'm changing hand he will carry you through. Patricia was a good wife and a good mother. I know you remember me. I've been sick myself for some years, but I always talk to on the phone. I'll keep you in the family in my prayers always remember is cats always watching and looking I love you guys.
