We will miss you, Miss Pearl. PEARL is a symbol of perfection, wisdom and spirit. Proof that perseverance, patience, and grace, create such beauty in life's embrace.

What A Lady . . . Ms. Pearl was one of our members at the Moses Jackson Golden Age Center,
And she was the same each time you saw her be it Summer or Winter. She always had such a pleasant attitude, regardless of how she was feeling, she always expressed gratitude.

Ms. Pearl always stressed the importance of education, she desired to learn, and when she was excited about something it is like you could see her mind turning. She worked diligently with Tina to learn her crochet stitches, for completing her projects was one of her wishes.

Ms. Pearl would color beautiful pictures and complete her word games. She also studied hard and participated in the Senior Spelling Bee when the time came. Ms. Pearl always smiled and would tell me to call Diane, if there were craft supplies that she would need, Thank God for a dedicated daughter for she saw about her mom, Ms. Pearl, Indeed!

Her greatest joy in life was her family who affectionally called her "Pearlie."

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Herman Jackson, one son, Kenneth Washington: sisters, Alfreda Haygood, Prophetess Rosa Washington Shellman; brothers, Julius C. Washington, Jr., Charles Washington.

Pearlie's legacy will be etched forever in the hearts and minds of all those who had the privilege of knowing her. Her selflessness, kindness, and devoted love will serve as a guiding light for generations to come.

Pearlie leaves to cherish her memories: her daughters, Karen Michelle Daniels, Dione Washington Hicks (Willie), Diane Denise Washington (Donald), all of Savannah, GA; Christina L. Williams (Keith) of Conyers, GA; son, Jelani C.
