“ My condolences to family and friends. Please find some comfort in the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 where it says “He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

“ Ralph you were always a friend and confidant. We shared many happy moments and milestones in life which made me a better person. Life sent us I different directions and we lost touch for a minute but we reconnected and enjoyed reminiscing about the past and looking forward to the future. God had a different plan and needed a trusted angel to watch over us so may you rest in heavenly peace. Norman (BO) Williams and Family
