“ Hey Daddy! It’s Sharia. Ugh...It’s almost two months since you’ve passed and I still can’t come to the reality of you not being here. It kills me so much inside because I miss our father-daughter bonding times we had whether it was watching movies, listening to music, talking about sports, playing video games, or flaunting our sneaker collection. I’ve been crying every now and then just missing you and your presence. I love you forever and always Daddy, My GodZilla, My Gantu, My Giant. Just keep watching over us.

“ Man this is so hard to do! Rich I have known you since the 5th grade! I mean from playing basketball all day at the twins house, or playing video games all day. We have been close of friends, even brothers!! We have been through good and bad. But we have always had each other’s back and you have always been here for me. Even when you was kicking my but at the gym! I’m really going to miss you bro! Love you!!

“ Darn Bing I miss you so much never thought I would be writing on your condolence wall. You was a good friend you was my bestie and no one else will ever replace you. A piece of my heart is gone. I miss your laugh and hearing you say Pluff when I answer the phone. You helped me threw a lot of dark moments in my life you encouraged me and let me know it was ok to cry and stop being so mean. Richard get your rest you did your job here on earth. You was a great friend. You are truly missed and I know you're somewhere in the gym working out. God makes no mistakes and he takes his best soldiers. You will always live in my heart bestie. Gone but never forgotten 💔💔💔🕊️🕊️

“ My condolences to the family. Richard was my partner coming up in West Savannah as youngsters. I wish I could have spent more time with Him as adults and for that I'm most sorryful. He was one of strongest guys I've ever known both inside and out. He will truly be missed and I will keep the family lifted in prayer.
