“ I called him Poppy. He was like a grandfather to me. I loved to hear him sing on Maunday Thursday “Were You There When They Crucified My Lord”. He was a remarkable person with remarkable stories. RIP Richard ❤️

“ Uncle Richie as I knew him was a very generous and gentle man, he was someone to look up to, not only because of his height, but also as a respectable Dad, husband & a friend.

RIP Uncle Richie 🙏

Our condolences and heartfelt sympathy to Richie's family. We met through business and remained good friends. He was always such a dedicated, kind, hardworking gentleman with a lovely laugh and beautiful voice. The memory of him singing during family Christmas parties is a favorite. May your memories ease the pain of loss. Richard and Barbara Davis
