“ To the family of the Late Dea. Armstrong. We send our deepest sympathy. Dea. Armstrong was a kind and caring person. Our grandparents were friends with his parents, and thus began more than a friendship that spanned across the centuries. A depth of friendship and love that traveled wherever family was. A friendship that influenced generations. Rest in peace Dea. Armstrong. To the family know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. Humbly submitted by the descendants of the Late Mr. Walter and the Late Mrs. Mary Badger of Bulloch County Ga..

“ Dea Armstrong was a neighbor on East 32nd and I lived on 31St. He would help me when I needed something hauled away. Yes he was a humble man who talked about his church. Ironically I attended church in back of St Mary’s. I lost track after he moved. I will remember how peaceful he was and will pray for the comfort of his family.

I met Mr. Armstrong while I was working in insurance many, many years ago and no matter when our paths crossed, he always remained the same. Take your rest my friend.
