“ I met Steve in the late 1990's when he did a painting job for me in Savannah. He always painted for me from that time forward because he was the BEST painter. He traveled three hours to my home in middle Georgia in February 2021 and stayed a week to paint my whole house. Over the years, Steve became much more than a painter to me and my whole family. He became a trusted family friend. We would touch base every month or so, regardless of paint jobs. I must admit, Steve was the one who made the most effort to keep in touch. He was always so positive and thankful to God for each day. I will deeply miss seeing his name pop up on my phone, just checking on us. RIP Steve. We love you and miss you already.
