

Sister Susie Lee Banks

February 14, 1922 - December 15, 2020

SAVANNAH - Sister Susie Lee Mitchell Banks, 98 entered eternal rest on Tuesday, December 15, 2020 at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Sylvania, Georgia on February 14, 1922, the youngest of nine siblings. She was baptized into Christ and was one of the original members of the former Carver Village Church of Christ under the leadership of the late Evangelist John W. Green. She was currently a member of 50th Street Church of Christ under the leadership of Minister Linnie L. Darden III where she served faithfully until her health begin to decline.

Sister Banks always enjoyed her family, her church family, and the numerous friendships she made through the years. She was a proud homemaker and a role model to many.

She also enjoyed good food, and lots of laughter. She was a great inspiration to the many young people she encountered in her lifetime.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Mayfield Banks, Sr., her sons; Willie James Mitchell, Robert Lee Mitchell, a daughter, Delores Banks; a granddaughter, Veronica Banks Turner and eight siblings.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Susie Banks Scott of Savannah; three sons, Charles Mitchell of Rochester, NY; Mayfield Banks (Mary) and David Banks all of Savannah, 40 grandchildren, 6 great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, church family and many friends.

Social distancing and the wearing of a mask is required for the safety of everyone attending the service.
