

Mrs. Tena Butterfield Adams

August 7, 2011

Mrs. Tena Butterfield Adams - SAVANNAH - Mrs. Tena Butterfield Adams, 96, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 6, 2011 at Heritage Healthcare of Savannah. She was born in Colleton County, SC and educated in the public schools. She spent most of her adult life in Savannah. She was a faithful member of Saint Luke Baptist Church, and the oldest member of its congregation and one of the oldest Deaconess Board Member in the Savannah area. She served in many auxiliaries, founding member of the # 2 Choir, member of the Mass Choir, Ogeechee Quilting Club, and Co-Chairperson of Feed-AR-Meal until her health began to decline. She was instrumental in getting the Midtown Community Center organized. Mrs. Adams was a devoted mother, friend, and grandmother. She is survived by, one daughter, Geraldine Furman, Brooklyn, NY; one son, Samuel Lowe (Jeanette), Savannah; special thanks to, Earl Mason and Thomasina Dawson, 14 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren, her church family, other relatives and friends.

Cemetery Details

Oak Grove Cemetery

Skidaway Road
Savannah, GA

Previous Events

Visitation

AUG 11. 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM (ET)

St. Luke Baptist Church
418 West 38th Street
Savannah, GA

Service

AUG 12 (ET)

St. Luke Baptist Church
418 West 38th Street
Savannah, GA