“ Hey Mama, hi Mama
Okay thank you mama for the 9 months you carried me through, all the pains and suffering. No one knows the pressure you bare a just only you. I give you all my love. You know why you did it, such love that you found. I'm going to always let you wear that crown. We all already missing you like crazy. We love you so deeply. Losing you was a tremendous loss not sure if we were totally get over it. But we better not let this break us. We know you looking down on us with your mother, your daddy and brothers. And y'all will want us to continue to come together. And we will stronger and way better. We all love you Mama bye for now. From your eldest son and my sister and brothers and all of your grandkids. Rest up lady until we meet again
