Naziyah, I don't know where to start, Or what to say. But our hearts goes out to you and your family. I no how much you loved your dad. Write now it may seem like the end of the world to you. But God has a special way of doing things. It's call, healing it happens day by day. little by little, your heart will heal. This is a special kind of healing. with time, all the hurt and pain you feel now, will slowly fade away. But God will make it where your will never forget the good times, you and your dad had together no one will ever be able to take those good time away from you. as time moves on, and whenever you think about your dad. The pain will not be there any more, a smile will come to your face because you will think about the good ole days you had together, some of the funny things you said and done. not the pain of this dark day, Zi the sun will shine again on you, And life has a way of moving on, but always no that, Me and Kelvin loves you very much. Your dad loved you very much, but most important of all God loves you more !!!

Our prayer is that you are now resting in Jesus arms. We will continue to remind Zi of what a wonderful father you was. I can't ever say that you have ever disrespected me or my husband. We will continue to keep Zi covered in the blood of Jesus and we know that you will be looking down on her. Forever in my heart, we love you Veron, rest in paradise.
