

Mr. William Scriven "Ole Man"

March 29, 1959 - May 30, 2021

Jesup/Richmond Hill - Mr. William Scriven "Ole Man", 62 died peacefully on Sunday evening, May 30, 2021 surrounded by his loving family in Jesup, Georgia. William was born to the late Edgar Walker Scriven Sr., and Lula Brown Scriven on March 29, 1959 in Bryan County, Georgia. He was educated in the public schools and attended George Washington Carver. He worked for Holiday Inn for several years before starting his career in the logging industry. He was also a handy man in the Dixie Community, working little odd jobs to make some extra money. William was affectionately called "Ole Man" by his family and friends.

William loved to fish, hunt and make jokes about everything especially the aliens that beamed him up and he landed on the trampoline with a knot on his head. William was a straightforward man who demanded little from those around him.

On May 30, 2021, William "Ole" Man" received a pair of Angel wings. He lived a life full of joyful times. His love, wisdom and awesome sense of humor will live on with each of us forever.

He preceded in death by both parents, his grandparents, March and Frances Scriven, William "Pat" and Mildred Brown, three sisters, Linda Scriven, Jeannie Weston, Deborah Rose Wilson; one brother, Edgar Allen, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: longtime companion, Loretta Morris, four daughters, Felicia Scriven, Amanda Green (Travis), Sharon Pryor (Richard), Khadijah Williams (Demetrius), one son, Jerome Morris; sisters, Mildred Burford (Dennis), Carrie Scriven, Annie Burford; three brothers, James Scriven (Deborah), Julius Scriven (Davida), Theodore Scriven; sister-in-law; Ernestine Scriven; four grandchildren, Anthony Pryor, Serenity Morris, Emonie Washington, Travis Howard; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

Doretha Young

My mother's maiden name is Dora Scrivens (Scriven), is it possible that there is a connection? In fact today is her birthday. She was born on the 2nd of June, 1925.
