

Deacon Zimbabwe "Zim" Brown

November 19, 1955 - December 5, 2020

Snellville/Savannah - Deacon Zimbabwe "Zim" Brown, 65 husband of Mrs. Carolyn Brown entered eternal rest on Saturday, December 5, 2020 at Eastside Medical Center in Snellville, Georgia. Deacon Zimbabwe (Albert Daniel) Brown was born in Statesboro, GA on November 19, 1956 to the late Roy Brown Sr. and Annie Mae Stewart Brown. He grew up in Savannah, GA and attended Savannah Public Schools. In 1993, he met the love of his life Carolyn Reynolds. In 1996, they united in Holy Matrimony and became a loving blended family. By the grace of God, the family continuously flourished.

Zim was a graduate of Sophronia M. Tompkins High School, Class of 1974 where he played cornerback on the football team and was a proud Wolverine. He attended Knoxville College in Tennessee where he joined the brotherhood of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity developing lifelong friends. In 1996, he converted and dedicated his life to Christ and joined Bryant Temple Apostolic Church of the Living God. He faithfully served Christ as a brother in the church. He later moved to the Atlanta area and became a member of God's True Worshipers Church in the Lord Jesus under the leadership of Bishop I.E. Bryant and Christ Anointed Apostolic Church of the Living God under the leadership of Elder Robert Reynolds; and continued to serve as a faithful brother. In 2009, he was ordained a deacon at Christ Anointed Church where he faithfully served until his health minimized some of his abilities.

Zim was well-known and loved in his West Savannah community. For many years he inspired the young boys in West Savannah as a football coach for the West Savannah Whippers while winning a few championship games. As an active member in the community, he served as a Founder of the Annual Homeboy Reunion. For over 17 years, he joyfully worked at Candler Hospital as a physical therapist where he left memorable impressions on many patients. He later worked at the GA Department of Corrections and also provided private security details. He diligently and faithfully provided for his household until medical illnesses led to his disability and early retirement. As a sports fan, you could talk to him about many sports teams, past and present. He had an amazing ability to remember game details and statistics. He loved being with his friends and family. Zim never met a stranger; he was full of fun and laughter.

After years of faithful service, the Lord called him home - from labor to rest. He is preceded in death by his parents, two brothers Clifford and Roy Jr. (Deborah), two sisters Barbara (Joe) and Annie Lizzie (George). He leaves to celebrate his life, his loving and devoted wife Carolyn; his caring son Stephen (Isha); two gracious daughters Ashley and Courtney; three adorable grandchildren (Zylee, Zoey, and Zayden); three dedicated brothers Charles, Aaron (Angie), and Robert (Estelle); two amazing sisters JoAnn (Peter) and Margie (Harold); and a wonderful host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and sisters and brothers in Christ.

Social distancing and the wearing of a mask is required for the safety of everyone attending the service.

“ I worked with Zim for the years he proudly enjoyed in Physical Therapy along with All Purvis. They brought a joy in healing. Zim loved his job. I remember when he met Carolyn and it was obvious there was a love between them. I truly missed him when he left Candler to pursue better endeavors. I kept in touch with him by Facebook. An Angel of a man who truly loved people. Rest in Heaven my friend.

“ Extending my prayers and condolences to the family of Deacon Zimbabwe Brown. My memories of Zim go back to our days at Tompkins High School. He was a really cool brother and I was glad to have known him. His race is complete and his journey over on this side. He now resides in a place where we'll never grow old. May God bless the family as you endure this season of temporary separation. But please remember, weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. +Matthew M Odum
